

INSURANCE JOURNAL™

THE PROPERTY CASUALTY MAGAZINE

WEST EDITION

EX-AGENTS DEFEATED IN APPEALS COURT

State Farm Awarded Partial Victory in Trade Secrets Case — 8

UTAH SEES $150M IN STORM DAMAGE

Flooding Destroys Homes, Infrastructure — 8

MARSH, NY AG STRIKE A DEAL

$850 Million Payout to Insureds — N5

TRAINS, PLANES AND AUTOMOBILES:

TRANSPORTATION SAFETY

MAKES THE JOURNEY POSSIBLE

$4.00

FEBRUARY 7, 2005

Vol. 83, No. 3

PERIODICALS GLASS-DELIVER PROMPTLY TO

FEATURES

Vol. 83, No. 3 • February 7, 2005

WEST SECTION

- 40 Across the Border: Mexico Travel Offers Opportunities for Agents
By Cynthia Beisiegel and Stephanie K. Jones • Specialized agents talk about this profitable niche.
- 44 Sexual Harassment Training Now Mandatory in California
By Kevin Ribble and Martin LaPointe • Tips for compliance help ensure you are within the law.
- 46 A Brief History of Contingent Commission Agreements
By Roger Wade • How one little incentive arrangement made such a fuss.
- 54 Agent? Or Broker? Consumer Choice Dictates Disclosure
By Wayne Carter III • Regulators called upon to provide concise definitions.

Departments

- 8 News Currents
11 Newsbriefs
12 People & Places
14 New Markets
16 Business Moves
17 Fraud Roundup

NATIONAL SECTION

- N1 Growing Your Property Casualty Agency
By Alan Shulman • Success lessons learned from computer manufacturers.
- N4 World's Biggest Broker Faces Uncertain Future
By Charles E. Boyle • Cycle turns for MMC; N.Y. strikes $850M deal for charges.
- N12 The Road More or Less Traveled
By Andrea Ortega-Wells • Transportation safety defines the journey.
- N19 Risk Retention Group Formations Soar in 2004
By Karen Cutts • Healthcare leads with the greatest number formations.

Departments

- 12 Ratings
14 Tech Products

Next Issue - Feb. 21
Wholesale M&A Trends

